

PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The Accounting Certificate is ideal for small business employees, those in career transitions or interested in building professional credentials. Aspiring bookkeepers and entrepreneurs will also receive academic benefits from this certificate. The program utilizes MS Excel, QuickBooks, and other critical skills essential for financial success.

21 CREDITS
EACH COURSE PROVIDES 3 CREDITS

Credits may be transferrable for higher-level accounting certification and undergraduate programs, depending upon the transfer policies of the receiving institution.

BADM 110 – Information Technology for Business

ECON 142 – Microeconomics

BADM 224 – Financial Accounting

BADM 225 – Managerial Accounting

BADM 320 – Accounting Systems

BADM 335 – Federal Taxation – Individuals

BADM 340 – Financial Management

Courses for this program will be offered at MCLA- Pittsfield in Fall 2019.

For more information and to apply:

www.mcla.edu/certificate or contact Joshua Mendel at 413.662.5409 or J.Mendel@mcla.edu

MCLA PITTSFIELD

WHY MCLA PITTSFIELD

MCLA-Pittsfield brings the college to the community.
MCLA is regularly recognized for its work in elevating student lives - and for our success in educating students for success.

“2019 Top Ten Liberal Arts College”
- U.S. News and World Report

MCLA-Pittsfield: new academic center centrally located in the city with ample evening parking.

Classes are offered in the evening and online to help students meet the demands of work, family, and their studies.

“One of the 100 best colleges combining outstanding academics with affordable cost”
- Kiplinger’s Personal Finance magazine

Students may be able to complete the certificate in one year.