

NETWORK SECURITY CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

The Certificate in Network Security will provide participants with a strong, undergraduate-level foundation in networking, network security, troubleshooting, and problem-solving for computer networks. The Certificate in Network Security provides excellent preparation for a variety of career paths in business, education, non-profits, human services, or any endeavor that relies on networks and information technology.

---

21 CREDITS
EACH COURSE PROVIDES 3 CREDITS

Credits may be transferrable to related programs in information technology, depending upon the transfer policies of the receiving institution.

CSCI 210 - Network I
CSCI 211 - Network II
CSCI 360 - Security I
CSCI 363 - Security II
CSCI 302 - Computer Triage
Two CSCI Electives

Courses for this program will be offered at MCLA- Pittsfield in Fall 2019.

For more information and to apply:

www.mcla.edu/certificate or contact Joshua Mendel at 413.662.5409 or J.Mendel@mcla.edu

WHY MCLA PITTSFIELD

MCLA-Pittsfield brings the college to the community.
MCLA is regularly recognized for its work in elevating student lives - and for our success in educating students for success.

---

“2019 Top Ten Liberal Arts College”
- U.S. News and World Report

MCLA-Pittsfield: new academic center centrally located in the city with ample evening parking.

Classes are offered in the evening and online to help students meet the demands of work, family, and their studies.

“One of the 100 best colleges combining outstanding academics with affordable cost”
- Kiplinger’s Personal Finance magazine

Students may be able to complete the certificate in one year.