

Weather Closure 12/16

Due to the impending inclement weather MCLA will be closed on Friday December 16 (from 12:00 AM on Friday, December 16, 2022 to 12:00 AM Saturday, December 17, 2022).

All in person final exams scheduled for tomorrow have been cancelled and all offices will be closed.

Faculty: Please work with students to complete all end of semester work; this may include online work (note there is potential for storm-related power and internet outages), or an incomplete. Grades remain due on Monday, December 19, 2022 by noon. Please reach out to Dean Dehner with any questions.

Resident Students: As previously communicated, we are asking you to depart the residence areas by 4:00 PM today, December 15, 2022. For students with exceptions, Aramark will have limited dining options available until 5pm Friday. As you pack to depart, please remember to follow closing procedures and return your keys before you leave campus. In Hoosac Hall, please place your keys in the drop-box at the front desk. In the Townhouses, please bring your keys to the drop-box located inside the vestibule of Townhouse #89. If you have questions, contact Residence Life at reslife@mcla.edu.
